MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

SUBJECT: Recommendation No. 2, Report of the President's Board of Consultants on Foreign Intelligence Activities dated October 24, 1957

The semiannual report of the President's Board of Consultants, above referred to, as presented to the President on October 24, 1957, contained the following recommendation:

Recommendation No. 2

"That, in order to achieve a better integration of our national intelligence resources (1) the policy, coordinating and supervisory responsibilities presently being discharged separately by the USCIB and IAC be vested in a single Board (to be known as the *USIB) established at the present level of the USCIB, with appropriate membership, under the chairmanship of the Director of Central Intelligence and responsible directly to the National Security Council, (2) the operation of the National Indications Center be made the direct responsibility of the new Board, and (3) the remaining functions of the USCIB and IAC (and their subcommittee) be redistributed on the advice of the Special Comint Committee and the Director of Central Intelligence respectively."
